

Council Membership Application

Your voice and cultural perspectives are needed. If you are a Nova Scotian interested in strengthening the culture sector and our shared Nova Scotian identity, please apply to join this dedicated and passionate group of arts and culture leaders. We are seeking four (4) new volunteer council members to join the Creative Nova Scotia Leadership Council - a group that represents the Province's ethnic, cultural, and regional diversity.

The Creative Nova Scotia Leadership Council was legislated to play a key role in promoting arts and culture and enabling the success of creative industries in the province. As such, the council:

- aims to enhance cultural activity through research, consultation, investment, promotion and preservation
- serves as a consultative body to the Nova Scotia Government on matters of cultural policy and cultural sector development
- advises and makes recommendations to the Minister of the Department of Communities, Culture, Tourism and Heritage on matters important to Nova Scotia's creative sector

Please complete this application form in full, attach a covering letter and resume indicating your interest in joining the council, and return to:
