Council Membership Application Form

Your voice, perspective and cultural expertise are needed. If you are a Nova Scotian interested in growing and strengthening the culture sector, and to better understand our Nova Scotian identity you are urged to apply to join this dedicated and passionate group of arts and culture leaders. We are seeking 4 new, volunteer council members to join 16 cultural and creative industry leaders representing the Province's ethnic, cultural and regional diversity.

Creative Nova Scotia Leadership Council was legislated <http://nslegislature.ca/legc/statutes/creatns.htm> to play a key role in promoting arts and culture and enabling the success of creative industries. As such it:

- aims to enhance cultural activity through research and consultation, investment, promotion and preservation
- serves as a consultative body to the Nova Scotia government on matters of cultural policy and cultural sector development
- in partnership with government, advises and makes recommendations to the Minister of Communities, Culture and Heritage on matters important to Nova Scotia's creative sector
- Supports the implementation and on-going work of the Culture Action Plan, plan which emphasizes the importance and breadth of culture and the rich, diverse communities that contribute so much to it

Please complete this application form in full, attach a covering letter and bio or CV indicating your interest in the Creative Nova Scotia Leadership Council, and return it to: Creative Nova Scotia Leadership Council, Attention: Selection Committee, PO Box 456, Halifax, NS B3J 2R5
Fax: 902-424-0710 and E-Mail: cnslc@novascotia.ca applications also accepted.

Applications must be submitted by: February 28, 2020
